Fact Sheet

March 2012

Allocation zones

What is an allocation zone?

An allocation zone is a group of areas or towns where social housing is available. There are 218 allocation zones across regional NSW. There are 25 allocation zones across metropolitan Sydney. The areas and/or towns in each allocation zone are listed in two separate lists:

- Allocation Zones in Metropolitan Sydney
- Allocation Zones in Regional NSW.

Can I choose a town or suburb?

When you apply for social housing you are asked to choose an area, suburb or town where you would prefer to live. We then check to see which allocation zone your selection is in and, if you are eligible for housing, we list you on the NSW Housing Register for offers of housing in this allocation zone.

For example in a non metropolitan area such as Cessnock, we check to see which allocation zone this is in. Cessnock is in allocation zone NN17 - Cessnock which includes the towns of Cessnock, Aberdare, Bellbird, Paxton and Stanford Merthyr.

If you select a metropolitan area where you would prefer to live such as Auburn we check to see which allocation zone this is in. Auburn is in allocation zone GW2 Auburn/Granville which includes Auburn and the suburbs of Berala, Chester Hill, Granville, Guildford, Homebush West, Lidcombe, Merrylands, Potts Hill, Regents Park, Sefton, Silverwater and South Granville.

Our aim is to house people where they would prefer to live but we can't guarantee specific locations. The location of the property we offer you when it's your turn to be housed will depend on where the next vacancy occurs that matches the type of housing you need within the allocation zone you have selected. This means that we might offer you housing in any of the suburbs or towns that are grouped into the allocation zone you are approved for.

If you'd like help choosing a location, talk to your local Housing NSW office or community housing provider participating in Housing Pathways.

Are the waiting times different between allocation zones?

Yes. The waiting times are much longer in some areas than in others.

When selecting an allocation zone, consider the Expected Wait List table as a guide for the current wait for a social housing property for general housing applicants.

Some allocation zones are called "high demand" zones because the demand for housing in these zones is greater than the number of properties that become available. If you select a high demand zone, you may be asked to select another zone that has shorter waiting times.

For an indication on the expected wait times for social housing by allocation zone & type of property, please visit our website www.housingpathways.nsw.gov.au.

Can I change my selection?

Yes. If you are approved for wait-turn housing, you can change your selection at any time until we offer you accommodation. If you wish to change your allocation zone you must advise your local office in writing.

Are all your questions answered?

If all your questions have not been answered in this fact sheet:

- contact your local Housing NSW office or community housing provider participating in Housing Pathways or
- call 1300 HOUSING (1300 468 746) or
- go to the Housing Pathways website www.housingpathways.nsw.gov.au

It is illegal for an officer of Housing NSW or a community housing provider to ask for money or favours or other benefits of any kind in exchange for helping you with your housing needs.

It is also illegal for you or anyone else to offer money or favours or other benefits of any kind to anyone who works for Housing NSW or a community housing provider in exchange for helping you. If you have any information regarding this, please contact Business Assurance on 1300 HOUSING (1300 468 746).
